

What is the Selection Process?

Factors to be considered in selection process include potential benefit, financial need, academic record, submission of educational transcripts, statement of purpose and references. The committee will use the "whole person" methodology to make the scholarship awards.

Veterans applying for a scholarship will be given precedence over other applicants.

About LVMAC

Established in 2003 as an organization of organizations (an association), the Lehigh Valley Military Affairs Council is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization operating within the Lehigh Valley.

We offer a forum and a focal point for veterans and civic organizations, businesses and governments to support our Lehigh Valley military-veteran community. We teach others to help in meaningful ways; advocate on issues of importance to our local military-veteran community; and organize or support programs centering on local military units when deployed, the families of service members, the transition of returning veterans, and the recovery of veterans requiring additional help.

As an all-volunteer organization, LVMAC meets on the third Wednesday of each month from noon to 1:30 p.m. at Saucon Valley Manor, Hellertown. Anyone interested in helping is welcome to attend. No military affiliation is required. Lunch is provided to attendees at no cost.

LVMAC has no membership dues. The only membership requirement is that its member organizations actively support and work toward achieving LVMAC's goals.

LVMAC seeks donations to fund its various programs, to include this scholarship program.

How do I apply?

An application form and its instructions are on our website www.lvmac.org or at our corporate office (phone: 484-788-0196; email: info@lvmac.org).

When can I apply?

Applications are due on May 31 of each year. Applications received after the due date will only be considered if additional funds become available or if the LVMAC scholarship budget has not been exceeded.

What must be included?

The application requires personal information, military service information, educational records, long-term educational and personal goals, details of the proposed educational program or details of expenditures to be made, the cost of the courses, and how the program will benefit applicant's personal development.

The application must also include a letter of acceptance from the institution in which the individual is enrolling, if applicable. Please include one letter of recommendation from an individual who can speak to the applicant's potential, performance, educational goals and needs.

The scholarship selection committee may also choose to interview the applicant.

Where do I send it?

Mail your application to:
Lehigh Valley Military Affairs Council
ATTN: Scholarship Committee
P.O. Box 22522
Lehigh Valley, PA 18002-2522

What does it pay for?

Monies can be used for tuition (at a VA approved training site), books and fees, and selected ancillary expenses like child-care and transportation.

How is the money paid?

Funds are given directly to the student; in which case, proofs and explanations of expenses will be required.

How much can I get?

Scholarship awards will be based on merit and need. The maximum amount to be given to an individual is $2,000 in a year. No more than four consecutive awards will be given to a veteran; and a maximum of two awards to all other applicants. Validation of satisfactory completion of course work will be required, and subsequent awards will not be made without such proof. The annual scholarship budget varies and is dependent upon private contributions and grants.

How will I be notified?

The committee will advise applicants of its decision in writing within 60 days after its final meeting.
